

Three cheers for the Huskys

SUN PHOTOS BY TAMI GARCIA The North Port Huskys cheerleaders practiced at Butler Park recently, gearing up for the fall youth football season. Here, Laila Ismail, 14, junior coach for the North Port Huskys cheerleaders, assists 6-year-old Emma Garcia in doing a proper pivot while Soleil Castro, 7, looks on.

Six-year-old Emma Garcia shows her team spirit by belting out a cheer during recently held Huskys cheerleading practice. The Huskys are still looking for girls of all ages to participate in their cheerleading squads, and are in need of coaches. For more information, call Kathy Donaldson at 941-815-7425 or email kminogue3@aol.com, or call Debbie Dalton at 443-983-1238.

Brianna Alexatos, 9, follows the lead of Brittany Wilkie, 15, as she practices an "eagle" jump.

The North Port Huskys cheerleading squad practice the cheer "Push `em Back."

Nine-year-old Madison Raines starts off a cheer during practice.

Brittany Wilkie, 15, left, and Enid Marrero, 8, practice one of many cheers.

Nicole Donaldson, 12, background, performs an "eagle," while Soleil Castro, 7, prepares to follow Donaldson's lead during recent North Port Huskys cheerleading practice at Butler Park.

Seven-year-old Soleil Castro shows her Huskys spirit by clapping and cheering during a recently held practice.

Shamari Williams, 13, was one of a number of girls who started practice with the North Port Huskys cheerleading squad at the Butler Park field last week.

Jayla Nainby, 9, is all smiles as she puts her hands together during one of many cheers.