

Huskys shut out Parrish Steelers

SUN PHOTOS BY TAMI GARCIA Zackary Sessa, No. 12, kicks the ball to start the first home game for the North Port Huskys varsity 14-and-under squad last weekend at Butler Field. The Huskys slammed the Steelers 48-0.

Above: Jonathan Forston, No. 11, tackles an opponent from the Parrish Steelers during a home game Saturday at Butler Field.

Left: Courtney Stewart, No. 22 for the varsity Huskys, tackles a Steelers player while teammates Jonathan Forston, No. 11, and Shane Jaghab, No. 48, head in to assist.

Below: Chris Butler, No. 9 for the Huskys, dives after the ball.

The North Port Huskys varsity football team makes their way onto Butler Field during the first home game.

Cheerleaders Emma Garcia, 7, left, and Abi Raines, 5, help stamp people's hands as they enter Butler Field during the North Port Huskys' first home game against the Parrish Steelers.

Dallen Kurzke, No. 6 for the Huskys, looks to hand o> the ball to a teammate during a recent home game against the Steelers.

Tyler Kirby, No. 1, quarterback for the Huskys, looks to hand o> the ball to teammate Chris Butler, No. 9.

Jamarcus Turner, No. 24 for the Huskys varsity football team, jumps up to intercept a play from the Parrish Steelers, while teammates Eric Hill, No. 71 and Ja'ma Washington, No. 81, watch the play.

Ja'Nyrein Washington, No. 3 for the Huskys, brings down a player from the Parrish Steelers, with teammate Courtney Stewart, No. 22, ready to assist. The Huskys don't have weight restrictions.